THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20315

22 March 1967

Dear Mr. Carver:

I am delighted to learn from Dr. William C. Davis, Director of our Speakers Bureau, that you will be able to help us conduct a series of seminars on Asia which we are scheduling for 9:00 a.m., Monday, 27 March.

On that day we plan to divide our class into small groups with each considering a special area or topic pertaining to the general subject. We would like you to lead the seminar on "The Viet Cong and the National Liberation Front."

The session will last until 11:30 a.m. I suggest you open it with an introduction of 20 to 30 minutes, to be followed by a discussion in conventional seminar fashion for the rest of the morning. However, we want you to feel completely flexible as to the manner in which you carry out your assignment as seminar leader.

As you know, The National War College policy of holding all of your remarks in strictest confidence permits you to discuss your subject freely and with complete candor.

It is my understanding that Dr. Davis has already discussed with you the scope of your topic. If you have further questions in this regard, please feel free to call him or Dr. Frederick J. Horrigan, the Course Director. The latter may be reached at OXford 5-8381.

We were sorry that you could not be here for your lecture on 20 March and are looking forward to welcoming you back to The National War College for this seminar on 27 March.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
